Open Letter
Amicus curiæ

17 June 2014

May it please our Immaculate Virgin Mary with Her Child Jesus!

10 Your Excellency occupies the position of 'Caesar' in the formal Roman State, the bankrupt corporation known as 'Ukraine'.

Your Excellency's predecessor, His Excellency Viktor Fedorovych Yanukovich, heeded the counsel¹ of Jesus Christ to not use armed force, which led to the defeat of the 'intelligence' agencies working on behalf of hidden powers, which we summarised in our recent Amicus curiæ thus:

15 Further to our recent Open Letters copied to Chancellor Merkel, it will have been noticed that 'Caesar' in Ukraine has been knocked off the chessboard by a bishop and a knight.

Juvenile delinquents may find it difficult to accept and may be tempted to replace Caesar with Cleopatra and rush around their 'queen' in circles to knock all the other pieces to the floor. If that happens, Mother will be annoyed and 'canon' at them.

20 "Canon law leads to cannon law, even a child can see that".

Checkmate is indeed hard to accept for the devil, the ego, for frustrated desires are more real for a 'teenager' than the 'laws of physics' - or chess.

Amicus Curiae to 'Switzerland'²

25 The purpose of this letter is to invoke the 'Verdimillios Charm' by the grace of Mahakali, Divine Mother-in-Earth, Ground of Being (YHVH) in Her Active Form and reveal objects hidden by the dark arts by those who wish to mould every Tom, Dick and Harry, even as a Potter moulds clay pots on a potter's wheel to create his desire and fix it by the heat of fire.

In so doing, Your Excellency may emulate the silent wisdom of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and thus bring Holy Peace to Ukraine and serve our LORD Jesus Christ, Justice who Sees with Compassion.

30 As this is an Open Letter, we remind our readers that this letter is to be read in the context of all our past Amicus curiæ letters to world leaders, published at www.courtofrecord.org.

'Uniform Commercial Code Mirror Reflection': Chocolates of the 'Chocolate King'

35 A century of financial war draws to a close, where everything 'bank' related is a mirror reflection. Bank 'deposits' are made by 'borrowers' who put their signature on deposit. There is no gold in circulation. There are no prices denominated in gold. The books of all banks, central and retail are without substantial meaning. Only U.C.C. legal infants³ believe in 'billions of dollars' or that Iraqi Dinars, Vietnamese Dongs or Euros will come to the rescue.

3 www.law.cornell.edu/ucc/3/3-202

Anyone who 'got rich' in the past century, owns working assets, the paid-up capitalisation of the legal fiction lifeless corporation, which are the fruits of fraudulent conversion, that is, financial war.

40 A 'chocolate factory' for instance, produces 'chocolates', which is a good in demand. It is possible to trade chocolates, for example, for a litre of diesel.

Ukraine, a natural producer of food, can export bushels of wheat, for example, in exchange for other goods. A marketplace in real goods must replace the financial war.

The 'settlement' available is the working assets themselves.

45 The writhing snakes of Medusa

The system of 'Central Banking', together with the retail banking instrumentalities of the 'Nation State', led by the Bank for International Settlements and the International Monetary Fund is the Medusa who is Caput mortuum, 'dead head', this is written in the bedrock in heaven.

50 The 'squares' of Freemasons, the scavengers of Egypt, are seen now to be a writhing mass of snakes, unable to rush away from the dead head and are spraying poisonous fumes in the air and over 'main stream media' whilst 'celebrating' their last orgy of mass murder, World War II.

55 The LORD calls to them: come out, come out ye worshippers of serpents, become True Men ! Save your souls ! The vicious serpent heads can only bite each other and the LORD is seen dancing on ye.

M.A.D. 'intelligence' snakes hiding behind 'defence' departments

60 *La Main Rouge*⁴, a created and controlled 'The Main Enemy', to achieve consensus in a 'republic', sums up the mentality cultivated by the manipulators of images and information. For 'Great Britain' it was 'Fascist Germany', for the 'United States' it was the 'Soviet Union', and so on. Victims can then be reorganised as in 'Israel' vs 'Palestine' and given a mantle of 'unquestionable' victim hood.

65 There is a special investigation in this Court of Record regarding former French colonies; the Vietnam war as an expression of death-worship, the promotion of communism in Vietnam to extract gold and the horror of it all witnessed in the film *The Killing Fields*⁵. We are investigating Cult of Power death worship conducted at the Bohemian Grove⁶. We remind our readers about the non-investigation of Hiroshima and Nagasaki which this Court of Record of YHVH is investigating as mentioned in our *Letter Rogatory to the British Cabinet/Parliament*⁷.

This Court of Record of the Supreme Being, One Most High, is investigating French Masonic use of the film industry as a means to create and control opinion in the English speaking world. It appears that the 'oldest' film company, *Gaumont Film Company*¹⁰, founded in 1895, in its incarnation as Gaumont British, created 1922, advertises in its Coat of Arms, its logo, covert control of 'Great Britain' symbolised by 'G.B' and the 'Daisy'; Leucanthemum vulgare, an invasive weed with a pretty 'flower', which cows and sheep "will not eat". "Today, in spite of regular modifications of the drawing, the daisy is always present even if its significance is forgotten".

As we now know from the BBC¹¹, Great Britain faced down, "sombre detective stories and traditional knit pullovers". Alfred Hitchcock's 1935 film, The 39 Steps, outlines what keeps, for example, the U.S. Director of National Intelligence, awake at night, even today¹². When ye take

"But, Mr. Secretary," said Alger Hiss, "no one can ignore the terrible power of this weapon." "Nevertheless," said Stettinius, "our entire postwar program depends on terrifying the world with the atomic bomb." "To accomplish that goal," said John Foster Dulles, "you will need a very good tally. I should say a million." "Yes," replied Stettinius, "we are hoping for a million tally in Japan. But if they surrender, we won't have anything." "Then you have to keep them in the war until the bomb is ready," said John Foster Dulles. "That is no problem. Unconditional surrender." "They won't agree to that," said Stettinius. "They are sworn to protect the Emperor." "Exactly," said John Foster Dulles. "Keep Japan in the war another three months, and we can use the bomb on their cities; we will end this war with the naked fear of all the peoples of the world, who will then bow to our will."

... Scotland would end up a nice size, about five and a quarter million people. As Mr Salmond wishfully dreams, that's about the same population as those prosperous egalitarian Nordic countries across the North Sea which once ravaged our shores with swords and axes, rather than sombre detective stories and traditional knit pullovers.

12 On April 25, Trinity College, Cambridge University, held a symposium at which the only known recording of Harold 'Kim' Philby addressing the KGB was played for the first time. Recovered from a Moscow intelligence archive, it was recorded in 1977 and is mostly about whether agents should ever confess. However, what Philby never told the Russians is that he himself had partially confessed in a moment described by Times journalist and espionage historian Ben Macintyre as "one of the most important conversations in the history of the Cold War".

For the British, Kim Philby reiterates the image of a Cold War traitor, and just published in Britain to critical acclaim is Macintyre's "A Spy Amongst Friends," an insightful biography of MI6 agent and Soviet mole who defected to Moscow in 1963. There was also an accompanying BBC documentary by Macintyre, "His Most Intimate Betrayal," broadcast in March.

The author had access to recently released MI5 files and family papers, along with the cooperation of former intelligence officers, though not MI6. "MI6 will never release its files on Kim Philby," Macintyre told The St. Petersburg Times. "One, MI6 doesn't release its files anyway, and two, these particular files are so embarrassing and so damaging to the security service that these are the very last files they would consider releasing."

Unlike the voluminous accounts of Philby already published which have focused on ideology and politics, Mcintyre says that the key to understanding Philby is friendship. "It is often said that there is an acronym which is used to explain the motivation of the spy and that is MICE: Money, Ideology, Coercion and Ego. But actually I think there is a fifth one and that is friendship. And friendship is often the basis of many intelligence relationships." ...

your-ego-self too seriously, this is the result: that you become a legal idiot, a full time lunatic, who believes in the part you play and cannot 'do the will' of God – which is to say, living a spontaneous, unpremeditated, Life.

90 A contemplative interlude

We are investigating the covert control of Hollywood and California thereby, which naturally extend into the video game and computer industries and the military-industrial complex. This hypothesis is substantiated by the covert war against California infrastructure, including but not limited to water and the activities in the nearby 'Area 51'.

95 The use of Hollywood glamour to seduce and control 'royalty' and other 'important' people, and to re-write their history is exemplified, for example, by the film Grace of Monaco.

100 There is no 'copyright' or 'intellectual property' in God's law; copyright came as a result of the Islamic Sultan's Qanun Law protecting the duplication of paper currency, which came by way of China. We are thus investigating those in the French Cult of Power who helped write or pass the 'HADOPI' 'law'¹³ as a result of 'lobbying' by Nicolas Seydoux¹⁴ of Gaumont and ALPA¹⁵. We suggest that they check the effectiveness of "drug laws". Only legal idiots in France follow their laws; the Loi (Law) of France is there for serpents in French government, courts and intelligence to 'terrorise' harmless frogs and eat them 'at will'; ... so think the *intouchables*¹⁶ of the French Cult of Power.

105 The arrest of Peter Sunde, founder of 'Pirate Bay'¹⁷ in Sweden is the 'terrorism strategy' of legal infants in Europe's Cult of Power.

110 This Court of Record of Jesus Christ is in motion on behalf of all French men, women and children in a class action lawsuit against the *intouchables*¹⁸ of the French Cult of Power and their paid political actors and financial 'insurance' agents, for example, Henri de Castries¹⁹ of AXA, Chairman of the 'Bilderberg' group²⁰, who is busy consolidating their de-facto kingdom led by a king unknown to the public – or to perhaps most members of the Bilderberg group !

Come out, come out, ye have nothing to fear; the LORD, Ground of Being, YHVH, our LORD Jesus Christ, avatar of LORD Vishnu, incarnate as Osiris to the ancient Atlantis and Egyptians, the LORD of the Ancient Covenant is here in this Court of Record; He who is the the in-dweller in all creatures including that which ye are.

115 Freemasons: Scavengers of God

The "newly rich" created by the French Revolution, consolidated their power under the wings of Freemasonry, for this provided a 'vehicle', a secret society, to organise under and profit from the religious war between the Protestants and the Catholics and between Christians and the Islamic Sultan.

120 It was discovered that there are real hidden powers of God. Science was uncovering some powers of 'matter' but the near-East demonstrated that there were powers that the West did not understand, demonstrated, for example, by Fakirs. The occult studies of the Freemason Cult of Power could masquerade behind the Cult of Material Force and carry out their experiments on Prisoners of War led by the Doctors of *La Main Rouge*²¹, who end up working for the Central Intelligence Agency of the United States, slaves to their hidden masters – but no more!

heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

The First Book of the Chronicles 28:9, King James Bible

130 The Ottoman Sultan, who created himself as a Caliph or Chief Priest, oversaw religious wars within Islam, between the Sunnis and the Shias, mirroring the conflict between Protestants and Roman Catholics. Islam does not have priests, a noble and ‘democratic’ feature perhaps, but this means that the Ottoman Empire in the past and Islam in general has no internal legal mechanism to detect the regression to ‘Caesar’s Law’ or to return to the rule of God’s Law: God is One.

135 This Court of Record of Allah Ar-Rahmān, LORD of Fathomless Compassion for His Creation, is investigating the Armenian Genocide²², by the Ottoman Sultan, about which we can read the following:

140 In the eastern provinces, the Armenians were subject to the whims of their Turkish and Kurdish neighbours, who would regularly overtax them, subject them to brigandage and kidnapping, force them to convert to Islam, and otherwise exploit them without interference from central or local authorities. In the Ottoman Empire, in accordance with the dhimmi system implemented in Muslim countries, they, like all other Christians and also Jews, were accorded certain limited freedoms (such as the right to worship), but were in essence treated as second-class citizens and referred to in Turkish as gavours, a pejorative word meaning “infidel” or “unbeliever”. The British ethnographer William Ramsay, writing in the late 1890s after having visited the Ottoman Empire, described the conditions of the Armenians:

145 “We must, however, go back to an older time, if we want to appreciate what uncontrolled Turkish rule meant, alike to Armenians and to Greeks. It did not mean religious persecution; it meant unutterable contempt ... They were dogs and pigs; and their nature was to be Christians, to be spat upon, if their shadow darkened a Turk, to be outraged, to be the mats on which he 150 wiped the mud from his feet. Conceive the inevitable result of centuries of slavery, of subjection to insult and scorn, centuries in which nothing that belonged to the Armenian, neither his property, his house, his life, his person, nor his family, was sacred or safe from violence – capricious, unprovoked violence – to resist which by violence meant death!”

155 In addition to other legal limitations, Christians were not considered equals to Muslims: testimony against Muslims by Christians and Jews was inadmissible in courts of law; they were forbidden to carry weapons or ride atop horses; their houses could not overlook those of Muslims; and their religious practices were severely circumscribed (e.g., the ringing of church bells was strictly forbidden). Violation of these statutes could result in punishments ranging from the levying of exorbitant fines to execution.

160 No doubt they did not teach this in history or civics but the real motivation that led to World War I is likely becoming visible to the perspicacious reader.

165 Unknown to the general population, certainly unknown to today’s pundits and ‘think tanks’, were the Scavengers of God, collecting the ancient wisdom scattered across many continents. If Islamic lunatics accuse the West that it has ‘no faith’, it has to think again. Those who kill others because of their faith or apparent lack of it do not know Allah Ar-Rahmān, LORD of Fathomless Compassion for His Creation.

Yet scavenging has its perils, even as picking through garbage dumps can be hazardous for poisons and dangers lurk in modern ‘civilised’ waste. Ignorance of the hazardous conditions is no protection from the harm inflicted by unseen dangerous waste beyond immediate sense perception.

170 “Loonies” experiencing “Holy Fear of God”

It is said that they are most thoroughly enslaved who don’t know they are enslaved. What is a worse fate, is for those who think that they are the ‘slave masters’ to discover that they are not the masters of their slaves ! Did the French really think that all the men, women and children of ‘Great Britain’ could be controlled by this mind-control strategy? Only lunatics in France today believe they “won” World

180 Germany's president Joachim Gauck has the right to call members of neo-Nazi party the NPD
"loonies", the country's top court ruled on Tuesday. ...

The court acknowledged that the term "loonies" could be seen as defamatory.

185 'Here, however, as follows from the overall style of the respondent's statements, the term "loonies", in addition to the terms "ideologues" and "fanatics", serves as a collective term for people who have not learned the lessons of history and who, unimpressed by the dreadful consequences of National Socialism, hold nationalist and anti-democratic opinions,' it said. ...

190 The leader of the largest country in the world clearly outclassed all of the gathered "royalty" in spite of, or perhaps due to, their united attempt to demonise and portray him as the "bad guy", when in fact the elephant in the room is that they are responsible for unleashing Nazis in Europe and continue to attempt to legitimize an illegal coup and forces who are engaged in military operations against civilians. ...

voiceofrussia.com/2014_06_07/At-D-Day-Putin-professional-Poroshenko-bows-to-the-Queen-3140/

195 We are not interested in the 'tone' of the article, about what is 'professional', or who should bow to who, but we are investigating Truth as it manifested in the history of the hundred years past and its implications for 'now'. The article apparently points a finger at 'who' is 'responsible' for the Nazis.

200 "The fear of the Lord is also an alarm," he said. "When a person lives in evil, when one blasphemes against God, when one exploits others, when one tyrannizes, when one lives only for money, vanity, power, pride – the holy fear of God alerts us: be wary!" The Holy Father went on to say,
"In this way, you will not be happy, you will end badly."

Pope Francis²⁴

The management of the 'estate' of 'idiots and lunatics'

205 Only lunatics believe that President Hollande of France, led around by lovely women, controls anything of any significance. Full time idiots amongst French and other 'secret societies' believe that they merely have to switch to setting President Putin of Russia up as the new Sultan, set the Chinese up for the worship of the "fatted golden Mao"²⁵, have the Vietnamese ram Chinese boats²⁶ who in turn will get angry and start the 'nice little land war' in Asia, for which they have been lusting, for they wish to 'reduce' the population in Earth.

220 *If England was what England seems
An' not the England of our dreams,
But only putty, brass, an' paint,
'Ow quick we'd drop 'er! But she ain't!*

225 *Before my gappin' mouth could speak
I 'eard it in my comrade's tone;
I saw it on my neighbour's cheek
Before I felt it flush my own.*

*An' last it come to me--not pride,
Nor yet conceit, but on the 'ole
(If such a term may be applied),
The makin's of a bloomin' soul.*

230 Extract from The Return by Rudyard Kipling (30 December 1865 – 18 January 1936)

What, then, is England? Are the English 'special'? The better question to ask, is, what is the guidance for all in Earth that the LORD, YHVH, Ground of Being, Christ Himself, has painted amongst the men, women and children of England in particular and the islands west of the 'Western Roman Empire'?

235 For the question to have meaning, one must contemplate the whole picture, the islands set in the context of the former Roman Empire that grew out of the Exodus from Egypt, the fall of the Roman Caesar, the split of the Roman Empire into the Eastern and Western halves, the conquest of Rome by righteousness by Christians, the meaning of righteousness, the Gospel of Christ, the transformation of both the Eastern and Western Roman empire into 'Christians', the transmuting force of the meaning of a formless 'God is One' by the grace of the Prophet Muhammad, Peace Be upon Him, the transformation of 240 tribal desert societies and tribal Qanun Law into a Nation under the statutes of a Sultan, the failure of the men and women of the Eastern Roman empire to detect and stop the emergence of an Islamic Caesar, a Sultan, who, in essence, declares 'man's law' above God's, the conquest of the Sultans from Spain to Indonesia by trade and war, the practice of 'lending/banking', the 'technology of Babylon', 245 strengthened by the invention of Indo-Arabic decimal numbers, rockets, gunpowder, paper, printing, and Qanun Law, brought to the West from China and India by way of Islam, the pitting of 'Christian kings' and 'Islamic Sultans' against each other by 'money lenders', the wilful suspension of 'thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steal', the statutes of God, by failure to understand the picture language of Egyptian Priests, written in words in the Torah.

250 Truly, Moses is a Great Man, a Master of Time, for the Torah is there to bear witness against the warring Children of One Father, Muslims, Christians, Jews, Freemasons, 'atheists', 'scientists', 'capitalists', 'communists', politicians, bankers, the Cult of Power, etc., alike and prove that they are legal idiots²⁷.

Deuteronomy 31:26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

255 Who are the Goodies and who are the Baddies?

The Russian Orthodox Church is 'processing' the impact of our letters, which have paused the onslaught in Ukraine and brought Russia and President Putin to the front of the World Stage.

260 After the service Metropolitan Hilarion addressed the worshippers. He greeted them and said: 'We have gathered in Minsk to ponder together with our Catholic brothers over the behaviour of Christians in this world, in which different views and notions are imposed on people. These views sometimes run contrary to the commandments of our Lord Jesus Christ. We meet with the Catholics for the sake of witnessing the truth of the Orthodox faith so that they hear us and understand our position as well as our anxiety about the events happening in the world.'

27 See line 675 et seq, Letter Rogatory to the British Cabinet/Parliament (http://www.courtrecord.org.uk/British/#__RefHeading__1923_2023600957) and The Law-dictionary, Explaining the Rise, Progress and Present State of British Law ... 1835 by Sir Thomas Edlyne Tomlins. See entry regarding Committee for the management of the estate of Idiots and Lunatics.

265 'The Catholic Church has many followers all round the world, including not only our friends but also our foes, belonging to which are first of all the Greek Catholic in Ukraine who come forward against the unity of the Holy Orthodox Church, support schisms and do much to promote present disorder.

270 'In this context we must speak frankly with our Catholic brothers, not hiding our thoughts by nice and polite words. We should remind them that there could be no double standards in our relations: either we are friends and allies, or foes and adversaries – tertium non datur. We hope that they will hear us and we would bear common witness about the intransigent Gospel values and Christ's commandments on which the life of all Christians and all Christian nations must be built.'

<https://mospat.ru/en/2014/06/04/news103588/>

275 If only life that God made were that simple, he wishes to know "who are the goodies and who are the baddies?". Perhaps Metropolitan Hilarion should take the time to watch A Real Partnership from the BBC comedy 'Yes, Minister', have a laugh or two and organise plays and a new T.V. series to translate the wisdom therein into the Russian/Ukrainian context.

280 "In government, many people have the power to stop things happening but almost nobody has the power to make things happen. The system has the engine of a lawn mower and the brakes of a Rolls Royce."

"When anybody says 'It's not the money, it's the principle' they mean it's the money."

285 "Being an MP is a vast subsidized ego-trip. It's a job that needs no qualifications, it has no compulsory hours of work, no performance standards, and provides a warm room, a telephone and subsidized meals to a bunch of self-important windbags and busybodies who suddenly find people taking them seriously because they've got the letters 'MP' after their name."

"The Prime Minister is much more worried by discontent among back-benchers than among nurses and teachers. Nurses and teachers can't vote against him until the next election. Back-benchers can vote against him at 10 o'clock tonight."

290 "The Prime Minister wants Cabinet papers circulated earlier. But there are grave problems about circulating papers before they are written."

"Wearing two hats is not difficult for those who are in two minds. Or have two faces."

"A Civil Service computer strike would bring government to a standstill if it were not for the fact that it is already."

295 "Since Cabinet Ministers are incapable of understanding a paper more than three pages long, we put a one-page summary on the front. The Janet and John bit."

"If you do not want Cabinet to spend too long discussing something, make it last on the agenda before lunch."

300 "It is unthinkable that politicians should be allowed to remove civil servants on grounds of incompetence. Of course some civil servants are incompetent but not incompetent enough for a politician to notice. And if civil servants could remove politicians on grounds of incompetence it would empty the House of Commons, remove the Cabinet, and be the end of democracy and the beginning of responsible government."

"Foreign policy is made in the Foreign Office. Therefore the Cabinet cannot pursue its own foreign policy unilaterally. The country cannot have two foreign policies."

305 "There was nothing wrong with appeasement. All that World War Two achieved after six years was to leave Eastern Europe under a Communist dictatorship instead of a Fascist dictatorship. That's what comes of not listening to the Foreign Office."

"Britain should always be on the side of law and justice, so long as we don't allow it to affect our foreign policy."

310 "It was a good idea to partition countries like India and Cyprus and Palestine and Ireland as a part of their independence. It keeps them busy fighting each other so we don't have to have a policy about them.”

“Diplomacy is about surviving to the next century. Politics is about surviving until Friday afternoon.”

315 “The public aren't interested in foreign affairs. All they want to know is who are the goodies and who are the baddies.”

“Foreign policy must be made in the Foreign office. It cannot be left to fools like Fleet Street editors, back-bench MPs and Cabinet Ministers.”

“Ministers are ignorant not because we do not give them the right answers but because they do not ask us the right questions.”

320 “It is well known that in the Foreign Office an order from the Prime Minister becomes a request from the Foreign Secretary, then a recommendation from the Minister of State, finally just a suggestion from the Ambassador. If it ever gets that far.”

“Press statements are not delivered under oath.”

“The Foreign Office is a hotbed of cold feet.”

325 “A somewhat unorthodox procedure means, ‘The act of a gibbering idiot’.”

A REAL PARTNERSHIP, BBC series ‘Yes, Minister’.

We would therefore humbly suggest, that if they are looking into the ‘Roman Catholic’ church, to take this advice that the only ‘goodie’ we are concerned with there is the current Bishop of Rome, Pope Francis and his predecessor Pope Benedict XVI, who had the courage to resign and draw attention to some grave matters. Make some effort to comprehend Pope Francis’ predicament – we have heard testimony that he is surrounded by “Cardinals who want to kill him”.

330 The Eparch of the ‘Ukrainian Greek Orthodox Church’ and his followers are, shall we say, “somewhat unorthodox”. They are unable to stop themselves from gossip, despite the clear and explicit instruction of Pope Francis and helpful reminders from ourselves.

335 YHVH, Ground of Being, One: the “way of sitting still”

Bearing “common witness” in the background of our awareness is YHVH, Ground of Being, who is none other than Christ Himself, Our Father, the blessed One who has Mercy with His world; That which is I-AM, the identity, in each particle, wave or creature. God is One; ‘we’ are One.

340 This YHVH, “God of the living”, is beyond name and form, “hallowed be thy name”; it is That which is when the ‘fire of universal manifestation’, fully burns itself out; it is like unto the pure white ash at the end of a fully burned wood fire. This is not annihilation, we are not preaching nihilism here, there is this residue after the fully burned wood fire; YHVH is perfect Good/True/Real, perfect Intellection/Intelligence/Consciousness, perfect Happiness/Joy/Bliss, worthy of worship, ‘untouched’ by the elements of conscious experience: space-time, energy, motion, wetness, solidity.

345 Psalms 4:4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

Psalms 46:10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

This ‘I’ in ye is the LORD God, YHVH, Ground of Being, Christ Himself within thee. One who knows this is a Priest. Without conscious communion with your own heart, ye be-come an idiot with divers lusts.

350 These are but ‘words’ on a paper, or letters on a computer screen; how can I be still? My mind is like a coracle in a mid-Atlantic storm, madly pulled hither and thither by the winds of fortune and the thought-currents of fear, thinks the one reading this.

355 Sri Ramana Maharshi (Bhagavan) has said: ‘When thoughts arise stop them from developing by enquiring, “To whom is this thought coming?” as soon as the thought appears. What does it matter if many thoughts keep coming up? Enquire into their origin or find out who has the thoughts and sooner or later the flow of thoughts will stop.’

This is how self-enquiry should be practised.

When Bhagavan spoke like this he sometimes used the analogy of a besieged fort. If one systematically closes off all the entrances to such a fort and then picks off the occupants one by one as they try to come out, sooner or later the fort will be empty. Bhagavan said that we should apply these same tactics to the mind. How to go about doing this? Seal off the entrances and exits to the mind by not reacting to rising thoughts or sense impressions. Don't let new ideas, judgements, likes, dislikes, etc. enter the mind, and don't let rising thoughts flourish and escape your attention. When you have sealed off the mind in this way, challenge each emerging thought as it appears by asking, 'Where have you come from?' or 'Who is the person who is having this thought?' If you can do this continuously, with full attention, new thoughts will appear momentarily and then disappear. If you can maintain the siege for long enough, a time will come when no more thoughts arise; or if they do, they will only be fleeting, undistracting images on the periphery of consciousness. In that thought-free state you will begin to experience yourself as consciousness, not as mind or body.

However, if you relax your vigilance even for a few seconds and allow new thoughts to escape and develop unchallenged, the siege will be lifted and the mind will regain some or all of its former strength.

In a real fort the occupants need a continuous supply of food and water to hold out during a siege. When the supplies run out, the occupants must surrender or die. In the fort of the mind the occupants, which are thoughts, need a thinker to pay attention to them and indulge in them. If the thinker withholds his attention from rising thoughts or challenges them before they have a chance to develop, the thoughts will all die of starvation. You challenge them by repeatedly asking yourself 'Who am I? Who is the person who is having these thoughts?' If the challenge is to be effective you must make it before the rising thought has had a chance to develop into a stream of thoughts.

Mind is only a collection of thoughts and the thinker who thinks them. The thinker is the 'I'-thought, the primal thought which rises from the Self before all others, which identifies with all other thoughts and says, 'I am this body'. When you have eradicated all thoughts except for the thinker himself by ceaseless enquiry or by refusing to give them any attention, the 'I'-thought sinks into the Heart and surrenders, leaving behind it only an awareness of consciousness. This surrender will only take place when the 'I'-thought has ceased to identify with rising thoughts. While there are still stray thoughts which attract or evade your attention, the 'I'-thought will always be directing its attention outwards rather than inwards. The purpose of self-enquiry is to make the 'I'-thought move inwards, towards the Self. This will happen automatically as soon as you cease to be interested in any of your rising thoughts.

Extract from Living by the words of Bhagavan, by David Goodman

Perhaps it may seem, from trying this for a few minutes, that it is 'rather boring'. Sri Ramana Maharishi (30 December 1879 – 14 April 1950), named Venkataraman at birth, who lived as a realised 'Christ' not that long ago, has left us not just a testament but the living presence of YHVH, Our Father, the blessed One who has Mercy with His world.

"The shock of the fear of death drove my mind inwards and I said to myself mentally, without actually framing the words: 'Now death has come; what does it mean? What is it that is dying? This body dies.' And I at once dramatised the occurrence of death. I lay with my limbs stretched out stiff as though rigor mortis had set in and imitated a corpse so as to give greater reality to the enquiry. I held my breath and kept my lips tightly closed so that no sound could escape, so that neither the word 'I' nor any other word could be uttered. 'Well then,' I said to myself, 'this body is dead. It will be carried stiff to the burning ground and there burnt and reduced to ashes.

But with the death of this body am I dead? Is the body 'I'? It is silent and inert but I feel the full force of my personality and even the voice of the 'I' within me, apart from it. So I am Spirit transcending the body. The body dies but the Spirit that transcends it cannot be touched by death. That means I am the deathless Spirit.' All this was not dull thought; it flashed through me vividly as living truth which I perceived directly, almost without thought-process. 'I' was something very real, the only real thing about my present state, and all the conscious activity connected with my body was centred on that 'I'. From that moment onwards the 'I' or Self focused attention on itself by a powerful fascination. Fear of death had vanished once and for all. Absorption in the Self continued

410 unbroken from that time on. Other thoughts might come and go like the various notes of music, but the 'I' continued like the fundamental sruti note that underlies and blends with all the other notes. 1
Whether the body was engaged in talking, reading or anything else, I was still centred on 'I'.
Previous to that crisis I had no clear perception of my Self and was not consciously attracted to it. I felt no perceptible or direct interest in it, much less any inclination to dwell permanently in it."

415 Sri Ramana Maharishi

After the experience recounted above, Sri Ramana Maharishi left home, travelled to Tiruvannamalai, cast away all that he had including his clothes and sat unmoving for days on end, absorbed in YHVH, Ground of Being. The depth of Sri Ramana Maharishi realisation of the I-AM presence is revealed in the following account(s) recorded in Ramana Maharishi and The Path of Self Knowledge by 420 Arthur Osborne²⁸:

A sadhu [renunciant] known as Seshadri Swami, who had arrived at Tiruvannamalai a few years previously, took it on himself to look after the Brahmana Swami, as Venkataraman began to be called, so far as any looking after was needed. This was not altogether an advantage, because Seshadri Swami made the impression of being slightly deranged and thereby drew on himself the 425 persecution of schoolboys. They now extended their attentions to his protégé whom they called 'Little Seshadri'. They began throwing stones at him, partly out of boyish cruelty, partly because they were intrigued to see one not much older than themselves sitting like a statue and, as one of them put it later, wanted to find out whether he was real or not.

Seshadri Swami's attempts to keep them off were not very successful; they sometimes had the 430 opposite effect. So the Brahmana Swami sought refuge in the Patala Lingam, an underground vault in the thousand-pillared hall, dark and dank, where the sun's rays never penetrate. It was seldom that any human being entered; only ants, vermin and mosquitoes flourished there. They preyed upon him until his thighs were covered with sores that ran blood and pus. To the end of his life the marks remained. The few weeks he spent there were a descent into hell, and yet, absorbed 435 in the Bliss of Being, he was unmoved by the torment; it was unreal to him. A pious woman, Ratnammal, entered the vault to take him food and besought him to leave the place and come to her house, but he made no sign of having heard. She left a clean cloth, begging him to sit or lie on it or use it against the insect pests, but he did not touch it. Afraid to enter the dark vault, the youthful tormentors threw stones at its entrance or broken pots that crashed and sent splinters flying.
440 Seshadri Swami mounted guard but this only incited them the more. At noon one day a certain Venkatachala Mudali approached the thousand-pillared hall and, indignant at seeing boys throwing stones in the temple precincts, seized a stick and drove them away. On coming back he saw Seshadri Swami emerging from the gloomy recesses of the hall. He was startled for a moment but quickly recovered and asked Seshadri Swami whether he was hurt. "No," he replied, "but go and 445 look at the little Swami in there," and saying this he went away. Astonished, Mudali descended the steps into the vault.

Coming from the bright daylight to the dark, he could see nothing at first; gradually, however, his eyes grew accustomed and he made out the form of the young Swami. Aghast at what he saw, he went and told a sadhu who was working in the nearby flower garden with a few disciples. They also 450 came to look. The young Swami neither moved nor spoke and seemed oblivious of their presence, so they lifted him up bodily and carried him out.

Eventually, the absorption in YHVH, Ground of Being, Our Father, the blessed One who has Mercy with His world reached a climax: conscious experience of rigour mortis.

455 Matthew 16:25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

Sri Ramana Maharishi's own description, recorded by Arthur Osborne:

When Sri Bhagavan first went to Tiruvannamalai he sometimes moved about in a state of trance, as already described. This did not completely end until about 1912 when there was a final and complete experience of death. He set out from Virupaksha Cave one morning for Pachaiaimman

28 www.courtorecord.org/archive/osborne.ramana-maharshi-and-the-path-of-self-knowledge.2002.pdf

460 Koil, accompanied by Palaniswami, Vasudeva Sastri and others. He had an oil-bath there and was nearing Tortoise Rock on the way back when a sudden physical weakness overcame him. He described it fully afterwards.

465 “The landscape in front of me disappeared as a bright white curtain was drawn across my vision and shut it out. I could distinctly see the gradual process. There was a stage when I could still see a part of the landscape clearly while the rest was covered by the advancing curtain. It was just like drawing a slide across one’s view in a stereoscope. On experiencing this I stopped walking lest I should fall. When it cleared I walked on. When darkness and faintness came over me a second time I leaned against a rock until it cleared.

470 The third time it happened I felt it safer to sit, so I sat down near the rock. Then the bright white curtain completely shut off my vision, my head was swimming and my circulation and breathing stopped. The skin turned a livid blue. It was the regular death hue and it got darker and darker.
Vasudeva Sastri, in fact, took me to be dead and held me in his arms and began to weep aloud and lament my death.

475 “I could distinctly feel his clasp and his shivering and hear his words of lamentation and understand their meaning. I also saw the discolouration of my skin and felt the stoppage of my circulation and breathing and the increased chilliness of the extremities of my body. My usual current of awareness still continued in that state also. I was not in the least afraid and felt no sadness at the condition of the body. I had sat down near the rock in my usual posture and closed my eyes and was not leaning against the rock. The body, left without circulation or respiration, still maintained that position. This 480 state continued for some ten or fifteen minutes. Then a shock passed suddenly through the body and circulation revived with enormous force, and breathing also, and the body perspired from every pore. The colour of life reappeared on the skin. I then opened my eyes and got up and said, ‘Let’s go’. We reached Virupaksha Cave without further trouble. This was the only fit I had in which both circulation and respiration stopped.”

485 ‘World leaders’ or others who read this Open Letter may recall this story in times of trial, recall YHVH, Our Father the blessed One who has Mercy with His world and receive instant solace. They may choose to practice this ‘Who am I’ contemplation in memory of one who thus overcame death itself, even as did Jesus Christ in more dramatic circumstances. It is not bodily immortality that is sought here but That undying consciousness, freed of the ego-personality and its troubles; the discovery of Life; 490 YHVH, Ground of Being.

Matthew 16:25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

495 The author of this Open Letter can confirm that this experience is indeed possible. Atheists and ‘scientists’ have to answer why they have not done the experiment to check the evidence. Even as an old fashioned festival rocket won’t get the Hubble Telescope into orbit to observe/witness the ‘far end’ of the ‘universe’, it is success in isolating the ‘I’ within, the ‘near end’ of that ‘external’ observation, that lets one observe/witness how space-time blooms into conscious experience of Matters of Fact and Relations of Ideas necessary for the discrimination of Truth from illusion regarding the conscious observer which makes all ‘evidence’ possible.

500 The achievement is a yardstick that measures those who come out short.

Those who call themselves ‘Jewish’ can see for themselves if they have kept the Sabbath and know YHVH, Ground of Being: “Psalms 4:4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.”

505 Those who call themselves “twice born”; Christians, Zoroastrians, etc., can see for themselves if they are indeed so qualified or did they just experience a social event?

Those who call themselves “Freemason”, chasing a Euclidean utopia that attempts to ‘contain’ the Holy See, can see for themselves if they worship the Supreme Being or their egos. There are no straight lines ‘out there’ for space-time is curved. ...

Those in various ‘secret services’, can see for themselves how they have been trapped by ‘MICE’ [3].

510 "When we are fanatical", he said, "we torture ourselves, we throw ourselves under huge cars, we cut our throats, we lie on spiked beds; but when you are fanatical you cut other people's throats, you torture them by fire and put them on spiked beds! You take very good care of your own skins!"

Mercy and forgiveness

515 Those who, wishing to be a Master, having discovered the Source, That from which awareness arises, by the enquiry, 'Who am I', can proceed to contemplate 'What am I', 'Where am I'. Having obtained these answers, then they qualify themselves to contemplate the 'beatitudes' described by Christ in Matthew 5. One does not however, have to wait and do all this in sequence. A little faith is all that is required, the kind of faith that you use when you get into your car and use the throttle and the brakes.

520 Just as your faith in cars is well settled by a few decades of experience, the faith in the process of self-realisation – finding the Real behind the ego, is backed by millennia of man's experience. Some people have shown that 'even a monkey' can drive a car, it is the same with the divine-Mind for it is present in monkeys, cows, dogs, etc.

525 It was not only seekers after Truth that were drawn to him but simple people, children, even animals. Young children from the town would climb the hill to Virupaksha Cave, sit near him, play around him, and go back feeling happy. Squirrels and monkeys would come up to him and eat out of his hand. ...

530 It is commonly held that progress can be made and karma worked off only during a human life; however Sri Bhagavan has indicated that it is possible for animals also to be working off their karma. In a conversation quoted in this chapter he said, "We do not know what souls may be tenanted these bodies and for finishing what part of their unfinished karma they may seek our company." ...

535 The animals felt his Grace. If a wild animal is cared for by people its own kind boycott it on its return to them, but if it came from him they did not; rather they seemed to honour it. They felt the complete absence of fear and anger in him. He was sitting on the hillside when a snake crawled over his legs. He neither moved nor showed any alarm. A devotee asked him what it felt like to have a snake pass over one and, laughing he replied "Cool and soft." He would not have snakes killed where he resided. "We have come to their home and have no right to trouble or disturb them. They do not molest us." And they didn't. Once his mother was frightened when a cobra approached her. Sri Bhagavan walked towards it and it turned and went away. It passed between two rocks and he followed it; however, the passage ended against a rock-wall and, being unable to escape, it turned and coiled its body and looked at him. He also looked. This continued for some minutes and then the cobra uncoiled and, feeling no more need for fear, crawled quietly away, passing quite close to his feet.

545 Great Masters like Sri Ramana Maharishi and Jesus Christ come to remind us that there is another dimension within us, where without compromise you may find Peace and Joy in your heart and oneness with even feared 'natural' enemies.

550 The most favoured of all the animal devotees of Sri Bhagavan was the cow Lakshmi. ... On June 17th, 1948, Lakshmi fell ill and on the morning of the 18th it seemed that her end was near. At ten o'clock Sri Bhagavan went to her. "Amma (Mother)," he said, "you want me to be near you?" He sat down beside her and took her head on his lap. He gazed into her eyes and placed his hand on her head as though giving her diksha (initiation) and also over her heart. Holding his cheek against hers, he caressed her. Satisfied that her heart was pure and free from all vasanas (latent tendencies) and centred wholly on Bhagavan, he took leave of her and went to the dining hall for lunch. Lakshmi was conscious up to the end; her eyes were calm. At eleven-thirty she left her body, quite peacefully. She was buried in the Ashram compound with full funeral rites, beside the graves of a deer, a crow and a dog which Sri Bhagavan had also caused to be buried there. A square stone was placed over her grave surmounted by a likeness of her. On the stone was engraved an epitaph that Sri Bhagavan had written stating that she had attained Mukti (Liberation/Salvation). Devaraja Mudaliar asked Bhagavan whether that was used as a conventional phrase, as the phrase that 560 someone has attained samadhi is a polite way of saying that he has died, or whether it really meant Mukti, and Sri Bhagavan said that it meant Mukti.

These thoughts are perhaps a little unpleasant, but “thou shalt not kill”, not even for breakfast. Do you think that YHVH, Ground of Being, is not just? All this war, fear and suffering is not ‘unfair’?!

565 Numbers 11:18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

570 11:19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days; 11:20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

The Fourth Book of Moses: Called Numbers

575 The LORD, YHVH brought thee out of Egypt, freed ye from the Roman Caesar through Jesus Christ, gave ye the freedom to worship as thou will in the ‘United States’ and ye have made a prison for yourselves governed by the ghouls of Egypt and Atlantis and eat flesh “until it come out at your nostrils”²⁹. Ye live as pickpockets, stealing gold, slaying God’s people, cursing thy brother with ‘natural catastrophes; blackmail, death and ‘jungle warfare’ is thy daily fare; is all well with thee?

580 The night was dark. Sri Bhagavan had already retired to rest on the raised platform in the hall in front of the Mother’s samadhi. Four devotees were sleeping on the floor near the windows. Two of them, Kunjuswami and Mastan, the former an attendant, heard someone outside say, “There are six persons lying down inside.”

585 Kunju shouted out, “Who’s there?” The thieves replied by breaking a window, apparently to frighten those inside. Kunjuswami and Mastan got up and went to the dais where Sri Bhagavan was. The thieves thereupon broke a window at that side, but Sri Bhagavan sat unperturbed. Kunjuswami then left the hall by the north door, as the thieves were on the south side, and brought Ramakrishnaswami, a devotee who was sleeping in another hut, to help them. When he opened the door the two Ashram dogs, Jackie and Karuppan, ran out. The thieves beat them and Jackie [the dog] and ran away while Karuppan ran back to the hall for refuge. Sri Bhagavan told the thieves that there was very little for them to take but they were welcome to come in and take what there was. Either considering this a trap or being too stupid to depart from routine³⁰, they took no notice but continued their efforts to dislodge a window-frame so as to get in that way. (According to the usual Indian practice, the windows had iron bars to prevent anyone getting in). Angered by their wanton destruction, Ramakrishnaswami sought Bhagavan’s permission to challenge them, but Bhagavan forbade him, saying: “They have their dharma (role), we have ours. It is for us to bear and forbear. Let us not interfere with them.” Though Sri Bhagavan invited them to enter by the door, the thieves continued their violent methods. They let off crackers at the window to give the impression that they had firearms³¹.

595 Again they were told to enter and take what they wanted but they only replied with threats. Meanwhile Kunjuswami had left the hall and set out for town to get help. Ramakrishnaswami again spoke to the thieves and told them not to make unnecessary trouble but simply to take what they wanted. In reply they threatened to set fire to the thatched room. Sri Bhagavan told them they should not do that but offered to go out and leave the hall to them. This was just what they wanted, perhaps still fearing that the others might set upon them while they were at their work. Sri Bhagavan first told Ramakrishnaswami to carry the dog, Karuppan, to a safe place in the other shed

29 The false flag ‘controversies’ regarding ‘horse meat’, ‘halal meat’, etc., and intelligence agency management of People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA) as an irrational group of ‘fundamentalists’ can be seen for what it is.

30 It seems that the “leaders of the free world” are, as yet, unable to depart from routine.

31 Today’s “leaders of the free world” have to set off bombs and kill people for negotiating advantage with those who cannot understand anything but the rule of the stick. In the case of Ukraine, these people are the elegant barbarians of Europe.

605 for fear the thieves would beat it if it were left there. Then he with the three others, Mastan, Thangavelu Pillai and Munisami, a boy who performed puja or worship at the Ashram, left by the north door. The thieves stood at the doorway with sticks and beat them as they went out, either hoping to disable them or to frighten them from any thought of resistance. Sri Bhagavan, receiving a blow on the left thigh, said, “If you are not satisfied you can strike the other leg also.” Ramakrishnaswami, however, got back in time to ward off further blows.

610 History repeats itself, ‘turn the other cheek’ manifests as there is ‘nothing to come in and take’... this is what is the only sane ‘policy’ in Ukraine; there is nothing to come in and take and one must turn the other cheek. Everyone who matters knows that Putin is not the problem.

615 The new President of Ukraine can ‘convert’ himself to the ancient way of Truth. He can order all ‘Ukrainian’ forces under his control to disarm immediately. Then the only fighters emanating from Kiev will be foreign mercenaries who must be publicly asked to leave.

620 What are ‘self defence’ forces in parts of Ukraine that have had a ‘vote’ to become ‘part of Russia’ defending themselves against? This is a question they have to ask themselves. They must get to know what actually happened when “Caesar fled”; it is Your Excellency’s duty to inform them. They must know that there is no need to band together and take up arms, this merely delays the inevitable, for it strengthens the hand of those sterile men who want war.

The solution to the problem in UK and Europe has already been proposed: “Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God”, which Pope Benedict XVI preached at the Lourdes in France in 2008 and again in his Christmas message of 2012.

Letter Rogatory to the British Cabinet/Parliament, lines 131- 133

625 Yet, there is no such thing as ‘independence’, borders and ‘territorial integrity of Ukraine’, which are legal fiction concepts of a dead corporation. The lunatics of Europe and America are the real problem. So what must be done? Signing an ‘agreement’ with the bankrupt legal fiction E.U. corporation won’t solve the problem, it will create another void contract which may or may not last as long as the one signed before ‘Caesar fled’.

630 Hotel California

Your Excellency won’t be alone in discovering, like Dominique Gaston André Strauss-Kahn³² (DSK), former Managing Director of the IMF did, that “You can check out any time you like but you can never leave”. The next thing that happens is that the drama is made into a film³³ by the French-Occult-Film-Spook-Military-Banker complex.

635 If a political leader “hates” someone, for example, “Netanyahu ‘loathes’ Obama, Israel’s opposition leader charges”³⁴, he has taken the first step in learning President Obama’s job, posing for the camera with maps and so on³⁵ or explaining *Matters of Fact*³⁶ “We ‘know for a fact’ Hamas behind abduction”³⁷; even as ‘they’ successfully got President Putin to pose with his ‘Generals’³⁸.

640 Even as we had warned, there were crude assassination threats, by the French Cult of Power, for example, to kill President Putin³⁹. If the naked lady distracts the questioner into childish questions about the body God made for her and gets uptight about the result, that is their problem. A better question is who is behind the publication and which Freemason or Cult of Power cell they report to. It is quite amusing that the French think they are going to deliver a warship “as agreed” to Russia. The best 645 thing the Russians could do with it is set it up in dry dock and offer 'hackers' a chance to find all the back doors.

We are investigating the recent death of Richard Rockefeller⁴⁰. We are investigating the attack on the Russian embassy in Ukraine⁴¹. Rather than blame 'western' powers, ask what message, which lunatic faction within the 'west' is painting in Ukraine or other tragedy? These events are like a fever, the spiritual disease which is an addiction to violence and death – a primitive belief, perhaps falsely traced to Atlantis, that a few must be sacrificed 'to the Gods' to protect the many. A 'good doctor' does not kill the patient to cure the disease.

655 Animal sacrifices do not belong in any way to the worship of God but to the worship of demons. They come near to, and are even used in, some forms of black magic. Whenever temples were turned into slaughterhouses in the past, and in certain lands still today, religion takes its lowest form, becomes pseudo-religion. Still lower were the rites of human sacrifice. Both kinds are concessions to, or expressions of, the killing instinct so marked in unevolved humans.

Spiritual war

660 Six centuries of spiritual war is what all of us, manifest as living men, women and children are recovering from. Old souls from Egypt, liberated from their tombs by French, English and American scavengers of the occult masquerading as 'Egyptologists' are with us as well as 'new souls' fresh from the slaughterhouses of the world, bent upon revenge.

665 Is the peaceable man to reduce or stop violent aggression against his fellow men but to continue it against other fellow creatures? What about the animals? We are not entitled to destroy animal life without an adequately necessary and morally justifiable purpose. Therefore it is well to enquire from the wise and good into the character of such purposes, and be guided by their counsel rather than by environmental custom. For the latter has led us, through its utter ignorance and total unawareness of the higher laws, into a situation where blow after blow falls heavily upon the human race. Why should we be so astonished that peace is so hard to obtain, that all too often flaming violence of war and death and mutilation is carried across the land despite our prayers to God and our plans to the contrary? So long as millions of innocent animals are bred only to be sent to the slaughterhouses for our unnecessary food, so long will Life pay us in like coin.

670 The lower characteristics are taken into the body, the blood, the nerves, and the brain. They become a part of us. The mind's response to higher ideals is dulled. The passions which make for strife and thence for war meet with less opposition from conscience and reason. The fear, suspicion, fright, and desire for self-protection which contribute toward war, being impregnated into the blood of our meat during the moments preceding its slaughter, are little by little brought into us too through the glands, the nervous system, and the brain, as our own blood feeds them in turn. It would be desirable, although admittedly difficult, gradually to adopt a meatless diet as a help to secure both the individual's development and the world's peace.

685 If the reality of 'spiritual war' appears a bit 'fantastic', then take notice that the latest 'jihad' group in 'Iraq' is called "ISIS", the name of an Egyptian Goddess⁴². It seems that this 'jihad' is actually designed to 'take down' the Ponzi scheme created for the foolish who believe that the 'currency' of a vanquished nation can be revalued to achieve 'victory' over the vanquisher.

A Rabbi solves a difficult problem and finds that suddenly this solution is popping up in multiple places. Many inventions have been invented more than once. Others have begun to notice the pattern 690 regarding cults that worship Egyptian Gods and Goddesses.

‘It’s rather ironic that this latest wave of Western armed and financed “Islamic” militants invading Iraq and now conveniently threatening Syria and Iran is named ISIS. Or is it deliberate? It’s being used to stand for this oddly anglicised fabricated “Islamic State in Iraq and Syria” full on barbaric movement presently sweeping Iraq, but anyone acquainted with any degree of occult knowledge or esoteric mythology know the goddess Isis is one of the most important figures in the so-called mystery schools and a favourite of Freemasonry and the Illuminati. ...

695 ‘By the way, as far as manipulating the Arab masses, the choice of the supposed leader’s name of these high financed and western trained pre-positioned rogue forces is Abu Bakr Al Baghdadi. This name couldn’t be any more incendiary. ...

700 ‘ “The schism between Sunni and Shia Muslims lies in disputes over who would succeed Muhammad as leader of the faithful after his death in 632. The Shiites thought the prophet’s son-in-law and cousin should lead as caliph, particularly given his blood relationship to Muhammad. Their opponents, the Sunnis, thought Abu Bakr, one of Mohammad’s first converts, should be their leader. ... “

705 ‘And Al Baghdadi? Clearly an affirmation of their intent to take over the capital and subdue all of Iraq. All of this cleverly engineered, any way you look at it.’

710 There are cults in France (and elsewhere⁴³) that worship snakes. There is nothing new about snake-worship, for example, in Egypt. There is nothing wrong with snakes themselves; if you ran a granary in a hot, tropical country in the pre-industrial, pre-chemical era, you’d want a trained snake, not a sleeping cat on hot day, to protect your grain store from rodents and the town from the plague. Snakes are intelligent creatures and can be directly ‘talked’ to and controlled better than a dog. This mastery of snakes is a specialised, highly disciplined, ‘spiritual’ profession, passed from father to son or master to disciple, for one mistake on the job, one angry thought regarding disobedience (snakes have personalities too) and the ‘professional’ is dead.

720 We are investigating how films, From Dusk till Dawn, for example, which, “although not very successful at the box office, the film has achieved cult status”⁴⁴, perhaps advertises and recruits cult followers for snake worship. Even as news of our investigation of snake worship got circulated, two boa constrictors were spotted on the loose in France⁴⁵, apparently abandoned by their former owners. It is obvious that Bank of America spells BOA as that is how banking works to squeeze its victims to death. Recently, President Hollande of France has appointed Ms. Laurence Boone⁴⁶ as his ‘economic adviser’. Ms. Boone will do well to consider that it is not just ‘socialists’ that she has to worry about. Stories about Burmese Pythons and American Alligators in the press have an ‘occult’ meaning as well.

725 This Court of Record is investigating Swedish Foreign Minister Carl Bildt and His Excellency’s warning, “The Balkanization of the British Isles is something we are not looking forward to”. We have Scottish friends and are acquainted with the ‘hatred’ of all things Roman Catholic.

730 We would advise the Scottish to investigate the framing of Mary Queen of Scots by Sir Francis Walsingham (1532– 6 April 1590) who forged the Casket Letters⁴⁷ that ended in her execution. Sir Francis Walsingham began the tradition of an English Secret Service and is said to be the original MI-1. We would also urge them to investigate the history of the Darien Scheme⁴⁸ when Scotland attempted to rival England in a quest for colonies and the pertinence of the above history to the false flag question regarding 'independence'.

735 The colonization project that became known as the Darien Scheme or Darien Disaster was an unsuccessful attempt by the Kingdom of Scotland to become a world trading nation by establishing a colony called "Caledonia" on the Isthmus of Panama on the Gulf of Darién in the late 1690s.

From the outset, the undertaking was beset by poor planning and provision, weak leadership, lack of demand for trade goods, devastating epidemics of disease and increasing shortage of food. It was finally abandoned after a siege by Spanish forces in April 1700.

740 As the Darien company was backed by between a quarter and half of all the money circulating in Scotland, its failure left nobles, landowners – who had suffered a run of bad harvests – as well as town councils and many ordinary tradespeople almost completely ruined and was an important factor in weakening their resistance to the Act of Union (completed in 1707).

745 We are investigating if the Grand Lodge of Scotland or other 'secret cult' in Scotland which controls Alex Salmond believes that they are going to be able to make it on their own in a post Federal Reserve world. Were these people misled along with millions of others entrapped in Ponzi Schemes into believing that many hundreds of thousands of tonnes of gold exist? Is His Excellency Carl Bildt in the same category of being controlled by a 'secret cult' and has invested in a Ponzi Scheme?

750 We are investigating if the recent Succession to the Crown Act legislation already has broken the legal union. We are investigating if the bankers of England and/or the United Grand Lodge of England and/or the Ordo Templi Orientis (OTO) and/or the 'Gnostic Catholic Church' wish to leave the "15 Trillion Dollar"⁴⁹ 'debt' on the Royal Bank of Scotland books in the hands of a formal 'legislature' in Scotland, even as there is only a formal 'legislature' in England. We have shown that substantial authority, is in the hands of YHVH, Ground of Being, One, Jesus Christ. This is reflected in the Scottish legal history 755 regarding the treatment of Choses in Acton and the epistemological and legal difference between "will" and "testament".

Even as we complete this letter on this Monday, 16th of June 2014, we read in the news that Russia has switched off gas supplies to Ukraine and that the Stockholm International Arbitration Court⁵⁰ is to attempt to solve the problem in addition to 'trilateral'⁵¹ talks with a bankrupt formal Caesar, the 760 European Union corporation. The Swedish government has demonstrated incompetence in detecting the balkanisation of its industrial base by financial war and complicity in the case of torture, kidnapping/rendition and Colour of Law fraud. NATO is already demonstrated by this Court of Record to be incompetent, with military hardware riddled with back doors⁵² and mind-controlled operators – of 765 which His Excellency Carl Bildt must know, for up-to-date information on torture and mind control is available at www.mindcontrol.se and we have seen evidence that Sweden supplied some of the "Nazi" 'right sector' lunatics in Ukraine. Is the fire at the Shell production plant in Moerdijk, Netherlands⁵³ evidence of a 'civil war' within NATO? We believe that Sweden does not have a competent substantial authority.

770 We are investigating His Excellency Carl Bildt's membership in the Cult of Power. There is an ongoing international investigation into all Masonic cults, including but not limited to the "P2 Masonic lodge"⁵⁴ and all the Grand and "irregular" cults, Continental, American, Asian, etc., for example, the Grand Orient de France⁵⁵ and the International Secretariat of the Masonic Adogmatic Powers⁵⁶.

We are investigating the Russia-China gas deal whose worth is a “commercial secret”⁵⁷ and the efforts of Russia-China to “‘de-dollarize’ and switch to Yuan and other Asian currencies”⁵⁸. We suggest that all contending parties contemplate “U.C.C. Mirror Reflection” and “fraudulent conversion”. The spiritual law regarding the worship of guns and gold rather than the worship of the Almighty One, YHVH, Ground of Being is well known as the sin of hēt’ ha’ēggel, the worship of the fatted golden calf⁵⁹.

780 Exodus 32:1 And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

32:2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

32:3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

785 32:4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

The Second Book of Moses Called Exodus, King James Bible

790 The Chinese Prime Minister His Excellency Li Keqiang visits London over the next three days⁶⁰. We shall make efforts to ensure that a courtesy copy of this letter is before him, God willing, prior to his meetings. We suggest that His Excellency Li Keqiang consider God’s Law, the exile of His Holiness the Dalai Lama who wanders like Moses with his people, the sin of hēt’ ha’ēggel, the worship of the fatted golden calf and its consequences for the men, women and children of the ‘communist’ corporation doing business as “The People’s Republic of China”. We remind His Excellency Li Keqiang that communism was invented in London by Karl Marx and used as a tool to enslave weak minds who know not the secret of love, the Law of God: God is One. “Thee and thine enemy are the One that I AM”.

Peace in Ukraine

800 As the recent ‘unprecedented’ prayer meeting⁶¹ in the Vatican Gardens has shown, faith in One Father can bring together implacable enemies. The benefit of the ‘No State’ solution, a return to contracts denominated in good substance, the absence of man-made borders as impediments to travel and trade, the end of a privileged status for certain ‘passport’ holders can be appreciated by all.

805 On this moving occasion, brimming with hope and full of faith, let us all raise with you, Your Holiness, a call for peace between religions, between nations, between communities, and between fellow men and women. Let true peace become our legacy soon and swiftly. Our Book of Books commands upon us the way of peace, demands of us to toil for its realization. It is said in the book of Proverbs: “Her ways are ways of grace, and all her paths are peace.

810 “So too must our ways be. Ways of grace and peace. It is not by chance that Rabbi Akiva captured the essence of our Torah in one sentence: “Love your neighbour like thyself.” We are all equal before the Lord. We are all part of the human family. For without peace, we are not complete, and we have yet to achieve the mission of humanity. Peace does not come easy. We must toil with all our strengths to reach it. To reach it soon. Even if it requires sacrifice or compromise.

The Book of Psalms tells us: “Whoever loves life and desires to see many good days, keep your tongue from evil and your lips from telling lies. Turn from evil and do good, seek peace and pursue it.

“This is to say, we are commanded to pursue after peace. All year. Every day. We greet each other 815 with this blessing. Shalom. Salam. We must be worthy of the deep and demanding meaning of this blessing. Even when peace seems distant, we must pursue it to bring it closer.

And if we pursue peace with perseverance, with faith, we will reach it. And it will endure through us, through all of us, of all faiths, of all nations, as it is written: "They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore."

820 His Excellency Shimon Peres⁶²

825 Reconciliation and peace, O Lord, are our goal. God in His Holy Book has addressed the faithful: "Make peace among you," Here we are, O God, inclined to peace. Make firm our steps and crown our efforts and endeavours with success. You are the promoter of virtue and preventer of vice, evil and aggression. You say and you are the most truthful, "And if they incline to peace, incline thou also to it, and trust in Allah. Lo! He is the Hearer, the Knower." In the saying of Prophet Muhammad, "Spread the peace among you. "

830 Today, we reiterate after Jesus Christ addressing Jerusalem: "If only you had known the path of peace this day" (Luke 19:42). As well let us remember the words of Saint John Paul II when he said: "If peace is realized in Jerusalem, peace will be witnessed in the whole world" Simultaneously, in our prayer today, we repeatedly call after those who advocate peace: "Blessed are the peace makers," and "Call for the peace of Jerusalem" as came in the Holy Scriptures.

His Excellency Mahmoud Abbas

835 Your Excellency, we pray for Holy Peace for all men, women and children which therefore includes Your Excellency and all in "Ukraine", "China", "Russia", "America", "Europe", "Asia", "Africa" and the "Middle East". We believe that by sending our love to Jesus Christ, YHVH, Our Father who has Mercy with His world, the consciousness of all involved can be raised to result in Holy Peace for all.

Yours faithfully,
